Senator Mayer Announces A New Addition to State Authority

JEFFERSON CITY – Missouri Sen. Rob Mayer (R-Dexter) is pleased to announce the addition of Steven Martin, of Portageville, Mo., to the Missouri Agricultural and Small Business Development Authority.

The Missouri Agricultural and Small Business Development Authority oversees the dispersal of competitive low-interest loans for Missouri farmers, agribusiness and small business.

“Mr. Martin is a family farmer that understands how important this committee is to the agricultural and economic future of this state,” said Sen. Mayer. “I’m pleased that he will continue to help his fellow Missourians by providing first-hand knowledge of farming in our state.”

A list of all the governor’s boards and commissions can be found online at www.governor.mo.gov/boards.
